Opening Prayer

Father, we're your people, the work of your hands. So precious are we in your sight that you sent your Son, Jesus. Jesus calls us to heal the broken-hearted, to dry the tears of those who mourn, to give hope to those who despair, and to rejoice in your steadfast love. We, the baptized, realize our call to serve. Help us to know how. Call forth from among our family and parish those who you

John 6:24-35

So when the people saw that Jesus was not there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum, seeking Jesus. When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not labor for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to eternal life, which the Son of man will give to you; for on him has God the Father set his seal." Then they said to him, "What must we do, to be doing the works of God?" Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent." So they said to him, "Then Jesus then said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven; my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that

Let us pray together as Jesus has taught us:

All: Our father...

All: O, God the harvest is great but the laborers are few. In your mysterious plan for men's salvation, you have chosen to work through us human beings. Grant to all of us the strength and conviction to live truly Christian lives, so that through us you may redeem and sanctify those around us. Call from among us many priests, religious brothers and sisters to continue the work of your Church among our people. Give to those whom you call the grace and generosity to dedicate their lives to your service. We pray especially for our Catholic Youth here in Brunei, that they may persevere in following your call and reach the aim of the priesthood and religious life. We offer you this prayer through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
