2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I: Isaiah 49: 3, 5-6;

Responsorial Psalm: 39: 2, 4, 7-10.

Reading II: 1 Cor 1: 1-3.

Gospel: John 1: 29-34.

Revised Roman Missal: 488 (Bahasa 867)

REFLECTION: There is the Lamb of God

In today's Gospel, we are drawn into the powerful Moment when John the Baptist proclaimed, "Look, there is the Lamb of God!" With these words, he boldly identified Jesus as the Chosen One of God, the Messiah. This declaration captures the essence of John's mission: to be a steadfast voice crying out in the wilderness and a guiding finger pointing directly to Jesus. As we enter this sacred time of prayer, we are invited to reflect deeply on the example set by John the Baptist. We must ask ourselves, "What about me? In my daily life, do I actively draw attention to Jesus?"

We often seek attention because of our pride and ego. We yearn for the world's gaze to linger on us, seeking recognition and validation. This desire can sometimes lead us to scrutinise the flaws and shortcomings of others, allowing discontent to grow as we complain and engage in comparisons. In contrast, John the Baptist directed the crowd's attention toward Jesus, urging them to follow the true path laid out before them. Today, let us strive to redirect our focus firmly toward Jesus. Like John the Baptist, may our lives encourage others to follow Jesus and lead purposeful lives.

Reflective question:

What is stopping me from following Jesus today?
