REFLECTION: Choosing God's Way

Today's first reading and Gospel place before us the dignity and seriousness of human freedom. In the first reading, it states, "If you wish, you can keep the commandments; to behave faithfully is within your power. He has set fire and water before you; put out your hand to whichever you prefer...", which reminds us that God sets life and death, good and evil before us, and then respects our choice. God does not force obedience, but He invites a free and loving response. Our decisions shape who we become and the path we walk.

In the Gospel, Jesus deepens this understanding by revealing that God's law is not merely about external observance, but about the condition of our hearts. He does not abolish the law, but He fulfills it by calling us to pursue a deeper goodness that goes beyond minimum requirements. He shows that true faith is asking, "How can my life reflect God's love more fully?"

The commandments are not burdens meant to restrict us, but guides that lead us to authentic freedom and love. Choosing God's way each day is choosing life

Reflective question:

In the daily choices I make, am I choosing the path that leads to life?

Pastoral Statement for dispensation from fasting and abstinence on Ash Wednesday 2026

Dear People of God,

Next year, the celebration of the second day of Chinese New Year falls on Ash Wednesday, 18 February 2026, being a day of fast and abstinence.

The Catholic Bishops' Conference of Malaysia, Singapore and Brunei, in consultation with the Episcopal Regional Liturgy Commission of Malaysia, Singapore and Brunei hereby gives dispensation from fast and abstinence on Ash Wednesday, 18 February 2026. However, the tradition of celebrating the liturgy of Ash Wednesday on that day is to be maintained with the imposition of ashes.

All Catholic faithful are encouraged to perform their fast and abstinence on another day during Lent except on Good Friday, which is already a day of fast and abstinence.

Wishing you the Lord's abundant blessings.

H. Em William Cardinal Goh
President
Episcopal Regional Liturgy Commission
