SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT 'A'

FIRST READING

Genesis 12: 1-4

Abram came originally from Ur in the Chaldean land, present day Iraq. It was then an extremely fertile area, and had one of the most advanced cultures of the day. Abram, the Father of the Israelite people, was called out of paganism to be the founder of a people faithful to the One true God. By his obedient faith he receives for himself and his descendants the true life lost by Adam's disobedience.

SECOND READING

2 Timothy 1: 8-10

[aul], writing just from prison near the end of his life, exhorts his trusted fellow-worker, Timothy, to endure hardship for the sake of preaching the good news. Timothy must rely on the saving grace given to humanity through Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL

Matthew 17: 1-9

Jesus had just told the apostles of his coming passion and death, but they do not understand that he must pass by suffering. Then God unveils for them the glory of his son. The transfiguration of Jesus describes in strikingly symbolic terms the awareness of Jesus' disciples of the true nature of his mission - not to be an earthly hero-messiah, but to be the source of final and eternal salvation to those who believe in him.

There is no place for the disciples of Jesus to pitch his tent: he must follow the suffering on the way of the cross.
