REFLECTION: The Feast of God's Love

In the first reading, God promises a joyful feast banquet for everyone. He will end suffering and death and wipe away every tear. This feast points to the joyful life God desires for us: a relationship of love and communion that begins now, not only in the future. In the Gospel, the king invites many guests to his son's wedding feast, but they refuse to come. He then invites everyone, but one person goes and does not put on the wedding garment.

The wedding garment reminds us that accepting God's invitation requires a transformed life. St. Paul shows us what this means: whether he has little or plenty, he trusts God rather than his circumstances. His confidence rests in God, who provides all he needs through Christ Jesus. Today, God invites us to His feast. Let us welcome His invitation with open hearts.

Reflective question:

What prevents me from responding to God wholeheartedly?

Invitation to the Wedding Feast

Imagine that you live in a great kingdom with a king and queen and many other great people. You hear that the king's son is going to get married and there will be a great wedding feast. All the lords and ladies and rich land owners are invited. On the day of the wedding the servants go out to call the guests to the wedding, but all those important people refuse to go! They say they are too busy with other things, and can't be bothered to go!

Now imagine that you are one of the children in a poor family that lives down a back street. Suddenly you hear people calling out that the king has invited your family to the feast! What excitement! Everybody puts on their best clothes and goes to the castle. In a little while the king comes in and you see him pointing to a man who isn't dressed neatly, and hasn't washed his face or brushed his hair. He sends the man out of the hall.

THE KING
INVITES YOU TO
HIS SON'S WEDDING!

This is the story that Jesus told about the kingdom of Heaven.

Many important people have been invited, but they have decided that they were too busy with other things. But the King has invited us too! We should rejoice and "dress" our souls by being the best we can be! Don't be a half-hearted Christian!
